3rd New Business

- a. Amber Golden
 - a. Informational – The ordinance NO. 166 states that a household can have a maximum of four dogs without needing a business license for a dog kennel. Amber stated that she had fourteen dogs at the time of the meeting. Animal Shelters are full, so she is unable to take the dogs elsewhere. The council has decided to follow the ordinance for a $5 fee per dog and a $35 business license fee to be paid. The fees are on a yearly basis, the dog fees being a year from the date of issuance of invoice for fee and the business license during the allotted business license issuance period. Amber is also required not to add
 - b. The issue of the shipping container on Amber Golden property
 - i. The issue was that the container was thought to be on top of the city's water and sewer lines, thus hindering access to them if it required repairs. But on review the container is not on the City's right of way so no citation is needed.
- b. Eathon Gregory
 - a. Informational – Regarding snow plowing in the City of Galena, the council and Eathon Gregory both agree that a set of parameters need to be created so that Council knows what Eathon will hit when plowing snow and how often he will hit the streets to clear snow.
- c. Mason with Axios Benefits – Informational
- d. Purchase of truck or tractor – Tabled
- e. Look into purchasing an air tag or contact Higginbotham to get trackers for vehicles.
